

Privacy Policy

We recognize your right to confidentiality and are committed to protecting your privacy. Your name, address, e-mail, and any other personal information gathered by us will be held in the strictest confidence and never distributed or sold.

During registration we will ask for some personal contact information (including your name, email address, and billing and shipping addresses). We will only use this information to contact you about the services on our site in which you have expressed interest, and to provide for a superior shopping experience overall.

Every transaction you make on our website will be safeguarded by an independent party's security software. When you place an order, all of your personal information will be encrypted using SSL encryption technology before being sent over the Internet.

Any credit card information will always be stored in encrypted form in a restricted-access database that is separate from our website database and not connected to the Internet, to ensure its safety against hacking attempts.

We will not send out unsolicited emails, or spam. If you receive an unsolicited email that you believe to be connected with us in any way, please forward it to us and it will be duly investigated.

We reserve the right to modify this privacy statement at any time, so please review it frequently. If we make any material changes to this policy, we will announce the changes on this page, or by email, or on our homepage.
